HIBITED BY LAW. REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

1. On 28 June 1951 the Canton branch office of the Chinese Red Cross Association sent a group of nine persons whom it had recently organized into an "epidemic unit" to Korea. According to propaganda concerning this unit, it is to assist the Koreans in smashing the plot of American imperialists and in carrying out bacteriological warfare at the front.
2. There is no evidence that research in bacteriological warfare is being carried out in the medical college of Chungshan University, the Kwangtung-Kwangsi Baptist Mission Hospital, or other hospitals in Canton. The medical college has no research laboratory, although serums against typhoid, dysentery, and cholera were once made at the college; and the Kwangtung-Kwangsi Baptist Mission Hospital has no research facilities.
